Important information about personal representatives

The federal Privacy Rule requires AmeriHealth Caritas VIP Care to follow certain procedures before it may provide access to your protected health information (PHI) to someone other than you. PHI is information about you that can reasonably be used to identify you and that relates to your past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition and the provision of health care to you or the payments for that care. AmeriHealth Caritas VIP Care will release PHI to your personal representative upon receipt of documentation supporting their legal authority to make health-related decisions on your behalf (for example, a valid power of attorney, guardianship, or other legal document). AmeriHealth Caritas VIP Care will also recognize as a personal representative an executor, an administrator, or a person recognized by law as having authority to act on behalf of a deceased member or the member's estate.

This is what you need to know:

Information about your health is very personal. We are committed to protecting your privacy. Please read this form carefully. This form will need to be completely filled out for it to be processed. This includes attaching legal documentation.

AmeriHealth Caritas VIP Care will not, however, treat someone as your personal representative if we reasonably believe: (1) you may be subject to domestic violence, abuse, or neglect by the personal representative; (2) treating the person as your personal representative could endanger you; or (3) in the exercise of professional judgment (for example, in a licensed professional's judgment), AmeriHealth Caritas VIP Care decides that it is not in your best interest to treat the person as your personal representative.

This is what you need to know:

We care about your well-being. If we think your personal representative will misuse your health information, we will not give it to them.

A personal representative designation will remain in effect until the member, a court order, or an applicable law revokes it.

This is what you need to know:

If you allow for a personal representative, this document will remain effective until it is canceled. You can cancel this if you want to. You just have to tell us. A court order or other laws can also cancel it.
